I absolutely LOVE Mark Hayes' arrangements

By JoannG

I absolutely LOVE Mark Hayes' arrangements! They incorporate a lot of great jazz harmonies and rhythms, without EVER losing the heart and sound of the original song. Some of them are CRAZY difficult to play, and take a LOT of work to learn, but the results are well worth it. This book is definitely NOT for the beginner, though. It requires intermediate to advanced skills to play these multi-layered and complex arrangements.

I particularly liked the lively arrangement of "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder" with a little "When We All Get To Heaven" thrown in for good measure. The wistful "I Will Arise and Go to Jesus" is really beautiful! Really, there is NOTHING in this book that is not simply outstanding!

Excellent Advanced Sacred Solos!

By Miss L

As the other reviewers have said, this book is excellent and truly advanced. Yet, it's not so advanced that an advanced pianist will have to work months on each song. The arrangements have a lot of grandeur, and often flowing sweetness, too. This book is neither a boring copycat of every other book nor a compilation of bizarre arrangements full of discords. It's fresh - incredible to hear and play.

Here is a listing of the contents, since I'm sure many would like to know:

1. Sweet By and By (5 Pages)
2. He Hideth My Soul (4 Pages)
3. When I Can Read my Title Clear (4 Pages)
4. Heavenly Sunlight (6 Pages)
5. I Will Arise and Go to Jesus (4 Pages)
6. In the Garden (5 Pages)
7. I'll Fly Away (5 Pages)
8. There is a Balm in Gilead (5 Pages)
9. When the Roll is Called up Yonder (6 Pages)
10. On Jordan's Stormy Banks (4 Pages)
11. The Old Rugged Cross (5 Pages)
12. How Great Thou Art (7 Pages)

I would include the keys they are written in, but there is at least one key change in every song, sometimes several. Often the songs have complicated keys (such as 4 or 5 flats) with interludes of easy ones. It keeps the songs interesting.

The Old Rugged Cross and How Great Thou Art are very advanced and absolutely thrilling to play. Definitely my favorites!
