Review

`a book to be read by everyone interested in South Indian history ... what makes it so remarkable is Stein's synthesis of vast stories of both primary and secondary sources.' Journal of the American Oriental Society

`One of the strongest aspects of the work as a whole is Stein's recourse to substantial analytical studies on local society ... Stein's historical vision and his scholarship is impressive' Journal of Asian Studies

`extremely well-written ... and highly thought-provoking' Economic Times, Bombay
