"A brave and tender book about everything that matters most in life."—Cate Blanchett

"A remarkable memoir, that weaves the tragedy of twentieth century history into a personal narrative of coming to terms with family and self."—Christos Tsiolkas

"Riveting, overwhelmingly poignant...An extraordinary hymn to the tragic heroism at the heart of ordinary life and the soaring moral scrutiny of womankind."—Weekend Australian

"A beautifully written, heartfelt and illuminating family saga."—New Daily

Magda Szubanski's childhood in a suburban migrant family was haunted by the demons of her father's life in wartime Poland. At nineteen, fighting in the Warsaw resistance, he had been recruited to a secret counter-intelligence execution squad. His mission was to assassinate Polish traitors who were betraying Jewish citizens to the Nazis. The legacy of her father's bravery left the young Magda with profound questions about her family story.

As she grew up, the assassin's daughter had to navigate her own frailties and fears, including a lifelong struggle with weight gain and an increasing awareness of her own sexuality. With courage and compassion Szubanski's memoir asks the big questions about life, about the shadows we inherit and the gifts we pass on.

Magda Szubanski is one of Australia's best known and most loved performers. She appeared in a number of sketch comedy shows before creating the iconic character of Sharon in ABC-TV's Kath and Kim. She has also acted in films (Babe, Babe: Pig in the City, Happy Feet, The Golden Compass) and stage shows. Reckoning is her first book.

Heart warming read!

By Jane D

I read this amazing story, which had so many similarities to my own family - Irish/Polish heritage (and I'm only a year older than Magda). I read the story whilst travelling recently to Poland to visit my late Father's family. My father was also a WWII immigrant who came to Australia. I cried at times and laughed! I felt I was following Magda's footsteps, especially when I visited Auschwitz-Birkenau, also her portrayal of the Warsaw Uprising; this was particularly moving to me.

I felt her pain and frustrations with her sexuality, and I felt her laughter and her tears.

A great read!!

The ripples of war are still taking their toll

By Liane Degville

Magda has bared her soul in this. Like the children of holocaust victims that I've met, Magda's mental health has suffered from the impact on the 2nd generation of a parent's experiences in WWII. In Magda's case the Philip Larkin poem about parents is particularly apt:

"They f%k you up, your Mum and Dad

They may not mean to but they do

They fill you with the faults they had

And add some extra, just for you"

true story of struggle

By john bateman

This is a compelling book about a person searching for her true self by exploring her family's past in three countries. It delves into the wartime experiences of her father in particular. Magdalena has written a most moving memoir. It finishes with acceptance of both herself as she is and her parents and grandparents.

I recommend third book to anyone interested in honesty.
