Charles A. Sennewald--the Best

By Special Agent 71

This review is written about "Retail Crime, Security, and Loss Prevention--An Encyclopedia." I sincerely believe that this is one of the best books, if not the best one, that can be found on the subject. Dr.Sennewald hired me as a Special-Agent/Investigator for the Broadway Dept. Stores in 1971 when he was a Security Manager for Carter-Hawley-Hale, Broadway Dept. Stores. I and many others received excellent training under Charles Sennewald and his managerial subordinates. It was not long before Dr.Sennewald became the Director of the Security Department. At the time of my being hired, a whole new Loss Prevention Program was being launched. The emphasis was on prevention; however, that did not, in any way, exclude arrests and restitutions. I must say that our Security Department under Dr.Sennewald's direction was highly professional, efficient, and trustworthy. Charles A. Sennewald ran a tight ship, and I am glad he did. I have always been proud to have worked under Dr.Sennewald. From Gilbert Paul Siegmund

Very Good Book

By Larry Kemper

This is a very good book of the subject matter. It covers subject like no other book I've read. Get it.

The best reference on the subjects yet compiled

By DonTheBaptist

This work of Mr. Sennewald and Mr. Christman has surpassed anything yet published on Loss Prevention and Retail Security. Every Security/LossPrevention professional should own a copy, and, where possible, provide a copy for each store Security Department. A much needed addition to any retail security professional's library.
