This book is so much more than a book! The exercises and games are super fun and unique to each individual because each of our minds are different. I am learning a lot about my own level of creativity and also embracing new techniques to grow what I already have been given (creativity, thoughts, senses). I have always loved learning and growing. There is a WEALTH of knowledge packed in this book -- it is totally worth the minimal investment for the life-change and enrichment that it offers.
