One of the most intriguing and controversial books to come out of the pagan community!

By Carissima

In crystal-clear prose, Mirabello presents the philosophy of Odinism. He details the terse and moving rituals of the enigmatic secret society known as the Odin Brotherhood, from their three annual festivals, to their mysterious "Sojourn-of-the-Brave" initiation ritual, to marriages, to the child naming ceremony, to funerals. The writing style, which uses dialogue to convey "truths," powerfully captures the warrior spirit that is at the heart of Odinism. In a world filled with decadent New Age books that will quickly fade into obscurity, I suspect that this beautifully written masterpiece will survive the ultimate test of time.
