THE STUD FARM BY SKYLAR SINCLAIR PDF

Hell hath no fury like a young man taken advantage of by an older man. A man that knew all the right buttons to push and how to set his skin on fire with his hands, mouth and tongue, only to devastate him after using his body shamelessly, brutally. Then patting him on the ass afterwards, treating him as if he were no better than a piece of used meat--unfeeling and uncaring of the young man's feelings. Dale King was that young man, but no longer is he an inexperienced gay boy, but a big droolicious-tongue ha

Not a romance at all... A vengeange tale instead.

It is said that the vengeange is a dish to be served cold. So thinks also Dale who was used and misused eight years ago and now he is searching his way with Preston, the very man who has broken his body, but not his heart.

Dale was not in love with Preston, and what the man did to him has only left him furios and hunger for repayment. If there was love, maybe now Dale can feel pity for Preston, an old man in search of love. Instead he has only hate for him and no love.

A very short tale, but the character of Dale is worth of more: maybe Skylar Sinclair will tell us the story of Ray?
